APPLICATION OF NORTH CAROLINA RESIDENCY FOR TUITION PURPOSES

All visiting students who claim North Carolina Residency for Tuition Purposes must complete this residency form. Failure to do so will result in the student being classified as a non-resident student.

North Carolina law (G.S. 116-143.1) requires that "to qualify for tuition purposes, a person must have established legal residence (domicile) in North Carolina and maintained that legal residence for at least 12 months immediately prior to his or her classification as a resident for tuition purposes." The information requested on this application must be supplied by every applicant for admission or readmission to North Carolina Central University who claims to be eligible for the N.C. tuition rate. This information is to be used only in connection with determination of your residence status and tuition purposes.

The law requires that every student admitted to the University (initially or after a lapse in enrollment) be classified for the term admitted as a resident or nonresident for tuition purposes, prior to enrollment. To be classified as a resident for tuition purposes, you must furnish such evidence as the University may require for making such classification.
